Challenge Room 101

- Live-action, team-based event
- Enclosed room or facility
- Clues, puzzles, and tasks
- Time limit
- Teamwork and communication
- *Concept is same as commercial type Escape Rooms

*Note: There have been concerns regarding the utilization of the term “escape” in association with a SHARP training event. After thoughtful consideration, and an abundance of caution, the term “escape” has been replaced by the term “challenge” throughout this Training Support Package (TSP). Please note that any remaining instances of the term “escape” are not intended to illicit negative thoughts or emotional responses, but rather are intended to convey the functional concept of this TSP.

Summary

Today we have provided your unit leadership with pertinent information necessary to construct and conduct a SHARP Challenge Room

The background of the slide features a warm, orange-to-yellow gradient representing a sunset or sunrise. Silhouetted against this light are several figures, likely soldiers, standing in a line and facing away from the viewer. The figures are equipped with gear, including helmets and backpacks. The largest silhouette is on the right side, while smaller ones are to its left. The text "What are your questions?" is centered over the middle of the image.

What are your questions?
